

7th May 2020

Dear All,

Keeping you informed about WAC.

Sorry when we sent the one earlier in the week I had forgotten this Friday 8th is a public holiday so no one will be at WAC.

However, we have also received other things to pass on.

1. Euan.Borland@oldvictheatre.com has asked us let you know that the Old Vic is developing a pen pal scheme linking children from local primary schools with older people by either letters or by e-mails. On sign up participants will be asked some simple questions including name, postal address/email address and how they would like to be contacted. They will also need to agree to the terms and conditions of the programme including our safeguarding requirements. They will then be matched with a student from one of our partner primary schools and will receive a letter or email (depending on preference) from their Pen pal once a week. We will be helping communication by setting weekly creative challenges for both participants to complete and share with each other, either by email, or letter, via the school. If interested you sign up via the following link: <https://www.surveymonkey.co.uk/r/G35S5XNI> or if you have questions Euan is happy to answer at them Euan.Borland@oldvictheatre.com
2. Laura Ichajapanich, Tai Chi tutor, writes re her Zoom classes "Hi lovely WAC students I'm lucky to see many of you at 10am Mon-Fri in the Moving Qi-gong class. It's free and just 30 mins to prepare you for the day. This week I started on Wednesday to run through the 24 move form after the class in the hope that you'd keep the form alive for when we return to WAC. Please feel free to join and pass this on to anyone who you think would benefit. There is a new link every week on my website: www.movingqi.co.uk. Stay safe, calm and connected".
3. Mark Macauley of The Prince of Peace Ministry, which usually worships at WAC on Sundays is also "at the moment the Zoom app for our Church service until the Action Center is open again for us".

4. London Drawing is also on line with their life drawing Tuesday 6-8pm and Saturday 11-1pm; with Portrait with the model Saturdays 4-6pm £10/£8 and £8/6 concessions plus creative drawing with a variety of themes all pay as you can: Monday 12.30-1.30pm / 6-7pm , Tuesday 12.30-1.30pm, Thursday 12.30-1.30pm. Links to all classes here <http://londondrawing.com/online-creative-sessions/> "Do keep me posted- WAC is a very valuable venue for us so we want to make sure we keep our bookings with you for when we get started again!! "
5. some individual users at WAC are trying to meet up in small groups on zoom. If you are interested, please let us know.
6. Invitation to all to a party from Jean Le Clerc "We don't have the rock 'n' roll party at Waterloo this Saturday but we will do an online party from 9pm to 10pm ; DJ The Mad French Wolf will play some great tunes and will play one Jive and a Stroll alternatively so no one will be a flower on the wall for more than a song. We strongly suggest to set up a table near the dance floor with some exiting drinks and nibbles for the party to be a success. What you have to do is join the party on Zoom <https://us02web.zoom.us/j/2696560548?pwd=am5hWjFpNVBReGZJUmtpR2NIUldmZz09> Meeting ID: 269 656 0548 Password: Jean Or via Facebook live stream Facebook/parisrockclub. Make sure you invite your friends to join the fun. Rocking regards Jean Leclerc parisrockclub@gmail.com"

Keep well.
Best wishes Jenny
